

Council Member Dawson Moore

Occupation

Coordinator, Valdez Theatre Conference, Prince William Sound College

Brief Biography

Dawson Moore first came to Valdez in 1995 to participate in the Valdez Theatre Conference. He moved here in 2003 to become the event's Coordinator, a job he has held since then. He has volunteered his time with many local groups, primarily Advocates for Victims of Violence, where he served on the Board of Directors for 14 years.

What are your goals being on City Council?

I hope to serve as a conduit for continually improving communications between City government and the general citizenry, helping foster an environment of respectful and honest discourse.

What issues facing the City of Valdez are most important to you?

Housing, economic diversification, long-term stability.

What do you enjoy most about living in Valdez?

I enjoy the small town pace and the great people who've filled my life since I moved here.
